Why Oregon Leadership Institute?

The Oregon Leadership Institute (OLI) provides attendees with exciting leadership, networking, and travel opportunities. Each student/advisor that attends OLI will have the opportunity to leave with the following:

- ✓ Chapter planning time (Program of Work)
- ✓ Motivational & exciting keynote speaker
- ✓ State officer-led workshops
- ✓ Activities to enhance your CTSO experience
- ✓ Network with other CTSO students across Oregon
- ✓ Various leadership opportunities

You won't want to miss the excitement at this year's Oregon Leadership Institute!

Conference Theme

Leadership Wins Championships!

Imagine the roar of the crowd. Your heart pounding in your chest. The nervous anticipation shared by everyone eager to find out the outcome, followed by a hard-fought competition, and either the thrill of victory or the agony of defeat.

Sports have existed for thousands of years, and today billions of people play and watch amazing feats of athleticism all around the world. Either as a player or as a spectator, sports can teach us important lessons about confidence, tenacity, hard work, and perseverance when the going gets tough.

This fall, TEAMTRI brings the power of sports to Oregon Leadership Institute. From basketball to badminton, from gymnastics to e-sports, and from football to futbol; come with us as we explore the wide world of sports and the amazing lessons they can teach us about being our best.

Community Outreach Project

This year at the Oregon Leadership Institute, chapters will have the opportunity to help raise funds for Valiant Seed by donating in this year's Miracle Minute Fundraiser. All contributions raised will go into the tiny home village for veterans in Roseburg!

For more information on Valiant Seed, you can visit valiantseed.org. You can also donate online here.

Registration Information

Eligibility:	Training is designed exclusively for members, chapter officers, and advisors of Oregon DECA, FBLA, FCCLA, HOSA, SkillsUSA, and TSA.
Registration Due Date:	All materials must be received by 5:00pm on Wednesday, October 9. All registrations received after that date are subject to late fees. All registration must be submitted via leadable.info/OLlreg
Registration Fee:	$45 for students and advisors/chaperones, this includes leadership training.
Late Registration Fee/Deadline:	All late registrations after Wednesday, October 9th will incur a $10.00 late fee. After October 10, if you have a student drop you can substitute another student in their place.
Substitutions	Substitutions are accepted. No refunds permitted. Submit all materials for new delegates attending through leadable.info/OLlChangeForm Name changes after October 9 or on-site will be accepted with a $10.00 charge.

Conference Policies

The Participant Code of Conduct will be strictly enforced.

Only participants registered for the conference may enter the conference facilities. Students may not leave the conference facilities without the permission of their advisor.

Students may not attend the event unless there is a school approved chaperone in attendance with them. The adult advisor/chaperone must pick up registration onsite and ensure that their students are supervised and participating fully in the educational leadership activities.

Each conference participant/guest, by choosing to attend this conference, grants permission to Oregon DECA, Oregon FBLA, Oregon FCCLA, Oregon HOSA, SkillsUSA Oregon, and Oregon TSA; and its affiliates and their respective licensing agents to utilize the participant/guest's image, likeness, actions, and statements in any live or recorded audio, video, or photographic display or other transmission or reproduction, in whole or in part, of the conference and any surrounding activities.

All chapters must have a zero balance with their respective organizations or proof of purchase order by the onsite registration in order to attend.

Attire

Professional business attire is to be worn during all Oregon Leadership Institute sessions.

PROFESSIONAL ATTIRE

Females: Dress slacks, skirt, coordinated shirt/blouse, dress shoes. Appropriate hosiery is recommended.

Males: Dress slacks, dress shirt (which does not include polo shirts), dress shoes and socks, sweater and/or sport coat. Tie is recommended.

Statement of Assurance – Form A

Advisors attending Oregon CTSO must review, sign, and return this statement of assurance along with their registration materials for each Oregon CTSO conference/event.

Event: Oregon Leadership Institute (OLI)
Date: October 30, 2019 (OLI East) or
November 1, 2019 (OLI West)

As the advisor responsible for the students attending this event, I confirm that:

- I have reviewed the permission/medical release form with my students, and I will have a completed copy of the permission/medical release form for each student attending in my possession for the duration of the above event, including travel to and from this event.
- I understand that Oregon CTSOs will not collect the individual student forms for this event and that they are to be kept in my possession.
- I understand that students attending the above event will have the opportunity to participate in activities outside of the conference facility, thus requiring walking or further public transportation. I have discussed this with the students and their parents/guardians and have also informed them of proper etiquette and safety precautions while traveling in/around metropolitan areas.
- I understand that proper completion of the permission/medical release form provides the best protection for my students' needs and my liability during an Oregon CTSO event.
- I have checked with my administrator and have secured authorization for my chapter to travel to this event and have reviewed all school/district policies regarding supervision of students on trips and will abide by them.
- The responsibility for the safety of the delegates from this chapter rests with people signing this Statement of Assurance.
- I will participate in all general sessions during the conference and fulfill my assigned responsibilities during the conference.
- I will patrol the halls (even during the day, if necessary), stay up until students and/or halls are quiet, enforce the conference Code of Conduct and Dress Code, and regularly check-in with my students.
- I will ensure that myself and chaperones assisting me will:
 - Follow the conference Code of Conduct and Dress Code
 - Act responsibly and interact appropriately with students

I have read the above and hereby offer assurance that I understand and agree to comply with the policies stated on the Permission Forms as indicated by my signature:

Delegate Permission/Medical Release Form – Form B – Page 1 of 4

All Oregon CTSO Sponsored Activities 2019-2020

CODE OF CONDUCT

Attendance at any Oregon CTSO sponsored conference or activity is a privilege. The following conduct policies will apply to all delegates: students, alumni, advisors, and any other authorized persons attending the activity. This form must be signed by each student and alumni (under 21) attending an Oregon CTSO activity and submitted to the chapter advisor prior to the respective registration deadline. The chapter advisor must have a completed copy of the permission/medical release form for each student attending in their possession for the duration of the event, including travel to and from the event. This Form must be kept on file in the local school district after conference.

Delegates shall abide by the rules and practices of the Oregon CTSO and school district policies at all times to, during, and from the designated point of origin of the activity. Delegates shall respect and abide by the authority vested in the career technical student organization. The standards outlined in this document constitute the Oregon CTSO Code of Conduct.

The following shall be regarded as severe violations of the OREGON CTSO Code of Conduct:

Should a conduct code violation occur for item 1 through 7 below, regardless of when exposed, the violating student(s) will be sent home and will not be eligible to attend any other state, regional, or national conference during that school year. If the violation warrants it, law enforcement may also be notified. Determination of penalties for violations will be at the discretion of the State Management Team or the Board of Directors/Trustees.

1. Alcohol, Drugs and Tobacco: a student shall not possess, use, transmit, be under the influence of, or show evidence of having used an alcoholic beverage, other drugs, substances or tobacco products capable of or intended, purported, or presumed to be capable of altering a student's mood, perception, behavior or judgment; other than properly used, over-the-counter pain relievers and medications prescribed by a physician for an individual student and must be on record with the advisor. Nor shall the student possess, use, sell or transmit paraphernalia associated with drugs, alcohol, or chemical substance in any form (including tobacco), at any time, or under any circumstances, on public or private properties.
2. Curfew: Committing serious violations of curfew regulations as outlined in item 9 below.
3. Willful Companionship: Being in the willful companionship of someone who violates any portion of the conduct code, or failing to report any direct knowledge (other than hearsay) of the conduct code violations.
4. Personal Conduct: Cheating, dishonesty, or taking unfair advantage of others; participating in social activities other than those with conference participants; conducting acts and/or possession of weapons capable of causing bodily harm or fear of life, defacing or stealing any public or private property (for which financial responsibility will rest solely with offending individuals or their chapter); breaking the law; other serious violations of personal conduct regulations.
5. Serious Violations of the student conduct code of the school district or school that the student represents.
6. Private Transportation: Driving or riding in a private automobile during a conference, unless accompanied by an authorized advisor. (Delegates are to be housed at the conference site.) Occasionally, a chapter advisor, under special circumstances, may allow a student to drive or ride in a private automobile to a conference. These students are required to complete a "Permission to use Private Transportation" form to the chapter advisor prior to the conference. Permission to drive/ride applies to transportation of the student named on the form and only to and from the conference site. Once a driving/riding delegate has arrived at the conference site, he/she shall not be in a private automobile again until leaving the site at the end of the conference.
7. Abusive Behavior and Lewd Conduct: A student shall not engage in any lewd, indecent, sexual, or obscene act or expression or possess such materials. A student shall not engage in verbal, physical or sexual harassment, hazing, or name-calling. The use of slurs against any person on the basis of race, color, creed, national origin, ancestry, age, sex, sexual orientation, or disability is prohibited.

The following shall be other violations of the Oregon CTSO Code of Conduct:

Should a conduct code violation occur for items 8-12 below, regardless of when exposed, the violating student(s) may be sent home and may not be eligible to attend any other state, regional or national conference during that school year. Determination of penalties for violations will be at the discretion of the State Management Team or the Board of Directors/Trustees or local Advisor.

8. Conference Conduct: Failing to wear the supplied conference ID badge and wristband (when provided) at all times from arrival at the conference until departure at the end of the conference; leaving sessions prior to their conclusion (except in the case of emergency); failing to attend all general sessions and assigned activities (including workshops, competitive events, committee meetings, etc.) for which a delegate is registered (unless engaged in a specific assignment taking place at the same time); not abiding by the rules and regulations of the Oregon CTSO or school/district policies from the time he/she leaves his/her home or school for any activity and the time he/she returns to the same home or school following the activity.
9. Curfew: Failing to be in your assigned hotel room from the curfew time designated in the conference program until 6 a.m.; causing any noise or other disturbance audible by anyone in the hallway after designated curfew time; ordering any food after the designated curfew time; causing any other unnecessary disturbance or participating in any other inappropriate activity after the designated curfew time.
10. Dress: Failing to abide by the dress regulations established for the conference, as outlined in the Dress Code.
11. Personal Conduct: Failing to report accidents, injuries or illnesses immediately to the local CTSO Advisor; failing to keep adult advisors informed of activities and whereabouts at all times; failure to comply with established grievance process for disputes about competitive event results/processes (including personally confronting judges or event administrators); using tobacco products outside of local school district policies and state law; having a member of the opposite sex in a room if no adult chaperone is present and the room door is not visibly open (e.g., the door may be propped wide open); having a delegate or advisor of the opposite sex in a room without a third person present and the door visibly open.
12. Hotel Conduct: Failing to meet the professional standards of housing facilities; accruing incidental room charges (i.e. phone calls, room service, pay-per-view movies, etc.) without settling the account prior to check-out; throwing objects out the window or into the hallway; moving hotel furniture from rooms (e.g., onto the balcony); failing to follow hotel rules and regulations.

Individual School District Policies may supersede the code of conduct.

Conduct Code Endorsement, Permissions to Attend Oregon CTSO Sponsored Activities, and Authorization to use pictures or student name in publications.

(Students and Alumni are collectively referred to as "Delegates" in this document)

Release of Claim for Damages, Emergency Medical Treatment Authorization:

Name of Delegate: _____ Date: _____
Home Address: _____ Phone: _____

Date of Birth: _____
Name of High School: _____ Phone: _____
Advisor(s) in Charge: _____

This is to certify that the above-named delegate has my permission to attend all Oregon CTSO sponsored activities for the 2015-2016 School Year. I also do hereby, on the behalf of the above named delegate absolve and release the Oregon CTSO, the school officials, the CTSO chapter advisors, conference staff, and Oregon CTSO staff from any claims for personal injuries/damages which might be sustained while he/she is en route to and from or during the CTSO sponsored activity.

I authorize the above-named advisor or the Oregon CTSO staff to secure the services of a doctor or hospital for the above-named delegate. I will incur the expenses for necessary services in the event of accident or illness and provide for the payment of these costs.

I grant permission to the Oregon CTSO and its staff/contractors, State Department of Education, and sponsors/supporters to use the above delegate's name and likeness (including photographs, video footage, silhouettes, and audio clips) in publications, productions, promotions and on websites for informational, promotional and other related purposes without further consideration, and acknowledge the right of the Oregon CTSO to crop, treat, edit, or otherwise modify the photographs, video footage, silhouettes, and audio clips at their discretion.

I also understand that the chapter advisor determines the criteria at the local site, for individual students and alumni to attend and participate at all CTSO activities.

We have read and agree to abide by the supplied Oregon CTSO Code of Conduct. Should a code of conduct violation occur, law enforcement personnel and or security may be called to assist, and a conduct code committee may be called with the ultimate punishment being that the student may be disqualified and sent home at their/their family's expense and/or be removed from office if in an officer status. If the delegate is sent home reasonable care shall be exercised to ensure a safe, expedient, and financially feasible mode of transportation back to the home community of the delegate involved. We are aware of the consequences that will result from violation of any of the above guidelines.
